

HPD Incident #: 2944512 Name: Unknown
Date: Saturday, January 7, 2012 Time: 5:55pm
Location: Burlington Coat Factory - 4426 N Freeway - Houston, TX
Offense: Aggravated Robbery Deadly Weapon - Handgun

The Houston Police Department's Robbery Division is seeking the public's assistance in identifying robbery suspects.

On January 7, 2012, the two suspects entered the Burlington Coat Factory located at 4426 North Freeway at approximately 5:45 p.m.. The manager observed the two suspects to place clothing articles into their shopping basket and then walk toward the fire exit located near the back corner of the store. One of the suspects exited the store while the remaining suspect stayed near the fire exit. A few minutes later, the manager observed the suspect inside the store to open the fire exit where he was met by the previous suspect who was now outside the door in a waiting silver Dodge Caravan. The manager walked over to the fire exit, grabbed the shopping basket that the suspects were now trying to push to the waiting vehicle. The manager told the suspects to leave the basket and also to leave the premises. Suspect #1 reached into the back of his waistband while making a threat to the manager that he had a handgun and was going to take the basket. The manager, fearing for his life allowed the suspects to load the now stolen clothing articles and flee the location in the listed vehicle.
